

Student Self Leadership Public Training for Trainers

This two-day training will qualify you to train students in schools, after-school programs, youth-based nonprofits or faith-based youth programs. The training will teach you how to work with middle school or high school students in order to give them the skills they need to lead themselves in school, at home and at work.

June 27 - June 28, 2019

Trainers benefit by learning how to

- ◇ Use engaging activities to ensure active participation
- ◇ Teach life skills in a fun but purposeful way
- ◇ Find out what motivates each student
- ◇ Build a sense of community through team-building activities
- ◇ Find more enjoyment from work when students take responsibility
- ◇ Count on students to ask more specific questions when they need help
- ◇ Use these leadership skills in their own personal or professional lives
